COMMENTS

(1) A comprehensive adjournment policy was issued separately which discusses in detail the establishment of standards in regard to adjournments and the adjournment portions of the various calendars.

(2) An individual Chapter 11 Debtor - in - Possession, or Principal or Partner of a Corporate or Partnership Debtor - in - Possession, must appear before the Court on the return date for Hearings on Disclosure Statements (if there have been any objections filed which have not been resolved before the scheduled hearing), Confirmation Hearings and on ALL Motions to Convert or Dismiss, if the motion is opposed. This requirement applied equally to any and all subsequent adjournments of these matters if granted by the Court.

(3) Sub-categories of potential motions listed for purposes of this presentation are not exhaustive but are cited as common motions which are routinely heard before the Court.

(4) The Court encourages parties to request separate hearing dates and times for motions which are anticipated to be of an especially complex nature or require substantial time.

(5) For default motions, refer to Exhibit A, Guide to Default Procedures for Motions heard in Rochester and Watkins Glen, attached to the most recent standing Order dated November 26, 2001.
